Introduction to Market Research

Why research?

Why Do Market Research?

Market research is essential to understanding your customers and your competition.

- ❖ It allows a company to make informed decisions
- ❖ Market research can identify trends that affect sales and profitability
- ❖ Good market research can increase your success rate
- ❖ It is an effective use of your business development time and money such as:
 - Staff time and resources
 - Project management considerations

Provides the potential to increase your success rate!

Market Research Questions

- Which agencies or departments purchase your products and/or services?
- Who are the buyers? Where are they located?
- How often do they buy and in what quantity?
- Are future buys anticipated?
- Which contracts are due to expire, to be rebid or terminated?
- Why did the government buy that particular product/service?
- Who are your primary competitors in this market?
- With which agency have they received awards?
- What resources will be needed to compete in this government marketplace?

Getting Started

Start by evaluating your current customers

- Who are your current customers?
- What do they buy?
- When do they buy?
- Where do you find them?
- Why would they buy?
- How would you sell to them?

Commercial to Government

- Who - governmental counterparts to your commercial clients?
 - key stakeholders; program decisions, cardholders, COs?
 - competitors?
- What - procurement practices / contract types are being utilized?
 - is the budget?
 - are the program priorities?
- When - is the activity up for re-procurement? (contract cycle)
- Where - do you find the buyers?
 - is the contracting activity local, regional or headquarters?
- Why - would they buy your goods/services?
- How - would you sell to them, via bids/proposals or direct marketing?

What information do you need?

Defining your target

- What information is needed?
 - Solicitation history
 - Incumbent
 - Agency information
 - Spending history
 - Contracting officer contact information
 - Agency spending history
 - Agency spending forecast
 - Potential primes and/or subs
 - What is your market – who are the competitors

Target Points:
 Search Goal (why)
 Search Terms (what & how)
 Database (where)

“Do you see any future government contracts for me?”

Federal Contracting Market Research

Gathering the data

How to Research Your Market

Now that we’ve discussed the “why” a business should conduct market research, let’s talk about the “how” of market research:

- ❖ Current Federal Opportunities
 - Which agencies are buying?
 - Where is the buying office located?
 - How is the solicitation categorized?
- ❖ Past Federal Contract Data
 - Which agencies bought from whom?
 - What type of contract? IDIQ vs. contract
 - Was this a set-aside activity? Competitive? Sole Source?
 - What are the top agencies for that NAICS code?
 - What contracts have your competitors be awarded?

Building Search Criteria:

- ❖ Keywords – how do you define your business?
 - NAICS Description
 - Competitor: SBA Small Business Search (SBS) profile
<https://search.certifications.sba.gov/>
- ❖ NAICS Codes <https://www.census.gov/naics/>
- ❖ Federal Supply Groups (FSG) & Product Service Codes (PSC)
 - Federal Procurement Data System (FPDS)
 - FSG / PSC table: <http://support.outreachsystems.com/resources/tables/pscs/>
- ❖ DoDAAC – Department of Defense Activity Address Code
https://home.daas.dla.mil/eDoDAAD/s_search/search_menu.asp
- ❖ Federal Organization codes – SAM.gov
- ❖ Procurement Forecasts <https://www.acquisition.gov/procurement-forecasts>

*Don't forget to research the agency websites
for keywords!*

Description

This is a non-personal services single award task order contract to provide construction management and quality assurance services. Work to be performed does not fall under the Brooks Act. Services shall not be provided which are considered closely related to inherently governmental functions. The government shall not supervise, direct, or have any direct control over the Contractors personnel. The Contractor shall furnish general construction management and quality assurance services which shall include assessment and monitoring of compliance with plans, specifications, schedules, and ancillary documents; quality assurance review of submittals, reports, plans, studies, technical documents and any other Construction Contractor document to assure compliance with plans, specifications, and ancillary documents; reporting of findings to the Field COR; file and data management; and other similar non-design tasks, as necessary. The location of projects under this Performance Works Statement (PWS) includes all of Alaska. Locations supporting all of Alaska includes remote sites, installations, bases, etc. location will be provided for each specific Task Order. This service does not fall under the Brooks ACT.

Service performance locations will be throughout the state of Alaska, and its outlying areas to include Wake Island.

Solicitation will be issued on or about April 2026.

Submission of interest to presolicitation announcement is not a prerequisite to any potential future offerings, but participation will assist the Alaska District in identifying sources with required capabilities. Firms responding to this sources sought announcement, who fail to provide ALL of the required information requested, will not be used to assist the Government in the acquisition decision, which is the intent of this announcement. Interested firms shall respond to this presolicitation Synopsis no later than 2:30 PM (AKDT) on 17 February 2026. All interested firms must be registered in System for Award Management (SAM) to be eligible for award of Government contracts. Please email all responses Tom Green (Tom.Green@usace.army.mil) and Derek Hitt (derek.hitt@usace.army.mil).

THE OFFICE OF PROCUREMENT AND PROPERTY MANAGEMENT (OPPM)

The State of Alaska's Centralized Purchasing and Property Management Organization.

OPPM operates under the statutory authority vested to the Commissioner of Administration and the Chief Procurement Officer. We oversee Alaska's procurement activities through the administration of the State Procurement Code.

The Statewide Contracting Office (SCO) assists all State of Alaska governmental entities, municipalities, and public corporations to fulfill their mission and reduce acquisition and lifecycle costs by providing superior, cost-effective contracts and agreements. The SCO administers Alaska's procurement officer certification and training program through its procurement academy.

The Property Management Office (PMO) is the central property management organization for the State of Alaska. The PMO receives and tracks property throughout its lifecycle, including final disposition through the Federal Surplus Program, the State Surplus Program, or the Property Reutilization Program.
